NEWS

35-year-old Herbert Chavez from the Philippines has transformed himself from an ordinary dress maker into a real life Superman. After nineteen surgeries that copy the comic book hero's look, Chavez has become a real life Clarke Kent.

Herbert first fell in love with the superhero when he was five years old. Since then he has spent around 300,000 pesos (£4,400) on his obsession – a huge amount of money compared to the average wage in the Philippines.

When he's not making dresses, Herbert can often be seen in the streets around his home dressed as Superman. He aims to teach children good morals and have some fun at the same time.

Herbert says he feels like a superhero whenever he pulls on the costume, but his mission is not to save the world but to help in his own small way and bring a smile to the faces of local children.

When she saw her reflection in the mirror she screamed. Looking back at her was the face of a terrified old woman – herself, but wrinkled, pale and grey-haired ...
